Scripture for Reflection

For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son. (Colossians 1:13 NASB)

The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. (2 Peter 3:9 ESV)

He drew me up from the pit of destruction. . .and set my feet upon a rock. . .He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. (Psalm 40:2-3 ESV)

Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them. (Psalm 126:6 NIV)

For he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. (1 John 4:4b ESV)

At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Philippians 2:10-11 ESV)

And the armies of heaven . . . were following him on white horses. . . On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords. (Revelation 19:14,16 ESV)

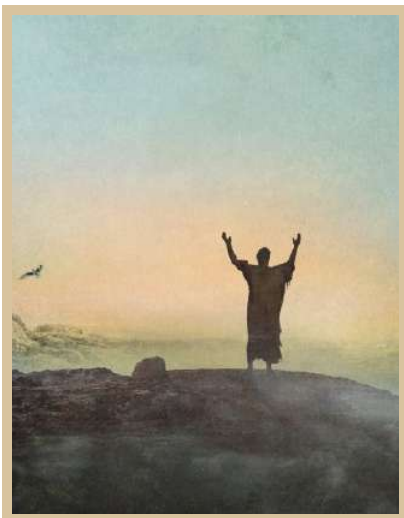

And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. (Ezekiel 36:26 ESV)

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me. (Psalm 23:4 ESV)

And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. (Colossians 2:15 NIV)

The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary. (Isaiah 40:28 ESV)

God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance. (Romans 2:4 ESV)

Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father. . . . On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord.' . . . And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you.' (Matthew 7:21-23 ESV)

For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit . . . and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (Hebrews 4:12 ESV)

HOW TO PLAN A

Sabbath Date with Jesus

There is no greater dignity bestowed on human beings than the fact that the Creator of the universe desires a relationship with us: He actually enjoys spending time with us! In fact, God is speaking to us all the time. However, we are not always listening.

More and more, our culture is conditioning us to crave noise, busyness, and entertainment—anything to distract us from nurturing our relationship with God. So before we are able to listen, we need to be able to hear, and before we can hear, we need to be silent. And before we can be silent, we need to remove ourselves from the distractions of the world.

It was quite some time before I developed the habit of setting aside time each week to spend with God (which also required adjusting some priorities), but once I did, it changed everything. Whether you already plan a weekly time with the Lord and are simply looking for some fresh ideas, or you want to begin making this a new practice, these are some tips that will help you get started.

What you'll need: Bible, pen, prayer journal, blank paper or notebook, worship music, favorite drink or snack, tissues, comfortable chair or cushion.

Where to go: a local park, library, coffee shop, your backyard, beach, state park or trails, local retreat centers (you'd be surprised how many there are!), your living room (when I stay home, I will often set up a YouTube video of a fireplace, campfire, or calm ocean waves to create atmosphere where there otherwise is none).

Planning around children's or others' schedules: If your current schedule doesn't allow you to set aside a full day, begin with a half-day or even one to two hours. If you have small children, consider arranging with your spouse or another parent to alternate spending a few hours alone with the Lord and then a few hours watching the children.

One friend who had a husband, job, and house full of children realized that the best solution for her was to leave home early on Saturday mornings and spend time with the Lord at a coffee shop. She could only go for one or two hours, but she confessed that it had become her most sacred hours of the week.

Shadia spoke at our church's Girls Night Out event and the ladies loved her! After her introduction to the study (we are starting her study on HAGAR), Shadia did a Q & A. I love these because you have an opportunity to get to know the speaker on a more personal basis. One group bought a case of books. I'm ordering more for our home group as well. Shadia is a terrific speaker! -FRANCINE RIVERS, International best-selling author

Shadia's messages are engaging, life-giving, transforming and the scriptures come alive!
- SHELLEY WILSON, Women's Pastor at Cathedral of Faith, San Jose, CA

Asking Shadia to keynote our women's retreat was a tremendous blessing as she sparked a Holy Spirit fire with her topic, Rise up! It's Not Over! We loved Shadia's unique and relatable approach. She tied in life application along with her humorous and personable style. Shadia is a gem. Be sure to book her (and her sidekick, Skipper) for your next women's event! -CHERIE DENNA, Retreat Coordinator, Evangelical Covenant Church-Pacific Southwest Conference

STRONGER than the STORM

Discovering Your Victory in Christ

No matter what storm you are facing,
you are stronger than you know.

This power-packed series centers on the victory we have through Christ who conquered sin, Satan, and death. No matter how things look on the outside, it's not over because God's Word assures us that, "he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world." (1 John 4:4).

Customized for your event; 1 to 4 sessions. This inspiring series is perfect for women's retreats, conferences, church and mission events, and more.

Event planners will also be provided printable retreat packets for participants with notes pages, key takeaways, plus questions for personal reflection. Suggested worship song list to complement retreat theme also provided.

IN THIS SERIES, YOU WILL:

- Rediscover the power and beauty of God's Rescuing Love by stepping into one of the most fascinating, yet under-appreciated gospel rescue stories
- Rekindle your joy for God's Gift of Rest
- Reignite your passion to live boldly in light of God's Promise to Return and Reign
